

An Integrative Approach to Healing Trauma While Ending the Cycle of Addiction

Iris Healing is a detox, residential and outpatient dual-diagnosis treatment center. Our co-ed, holistic programs are located in the tranquil residential neighborhood of Woodland Hills, centrally located in the Los Angeles area.

Our doctoral level clinical team facilitates an individual trauma informed program that emphasizes recovery, trauma resolution, spiritual growth, self-care and personal development.

At Iris, we believe in modeling and teaching empathy, creating a healthy lifestyle, and cultivating meaningful connections.

Our goal is to support all clients in discovering their true spiritual self and empowering them with the tools that create a happy, fulfilled and purposeful life at Iris and beyond.

We want to give all our clients
the gift of lifelong recovery!
